E. church, at the home of the Misses Smith, on North El Paso street. A pleasing musical program included numbers by Miss Ola Baker, Kathrine

SEPTEMBER

A dash of red on the waylaid weed,
And of gold on the woodland tree;
A yellow dress on the waving mead—
'Tis autumn's work I see!
The clustered grapes on the river brim,
The wild plum's ruddy hail,
And the nodding grasses' unheard hymn,
The gathering bird-calls call;
And the aster turns to the golden rod;
The sunflowers toy with the breeze and nod;
For the spirit of joy is all abroad,
With the first sweet month of the Fall.

Warren, Annie Harper and Clint Ballard. A guessing game added to the enjoyment of the evening. Refreshments were served.

Miss Essie Darbyshire very pleasantly entertained her Sunday school class Wednesday afternoon at her home on North Florence street. Various games were enjoyed by the little folks, among them a puzzle game in which the prize—an Indian papoose—was won by Miss Winifred Shelton. A dainty luncheon and ices, cakes and candies were served.

Those in attendance were: Dorothy Williams, Kathrine Earle, Dorothy Volterton, Julia Morse, Annette Morse, Martha Hulig, Winifred Shelton, Helen Shump, Charlotte Ormsbee.
